O R D E R

Both counsel present.

2.It is found that the first respondent having died and the factum of death though has already been intimated to the petitioner, despite several adjournments, the petitioner is not interested in taking steps to bring on record the legal representatives of the deceased first respondent, this would only go to show that the petitioner is not ready to prosecute the matter diligently.

3.Even today, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks further time to take steps. However, the said request is declined.

4.In the light of the above position, no purpose would be served in keeping the Civil Revision Petition further pending. Accordingly, this Civil Revision Petition is dismissed for non-prosecution with costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
